

Pesach Planner

April 2009
פסח תשס"ט

Updates to our Pesach Planner: Last update April 6, 2009, 2:45 AM

From the HKA — Posted April 6, 2009, 2:45 AM

All EZ Spuds RAW products may be used for Pesach with the exception of their coleslaw which is a processed product.

From the HKA — Posted April 6, 2009, 2:45 AM

Please note that Pillar Rock canned salmon is accepted for Pesach use, even without the Pesach certification on the label. The salmon in pouches is not recommended for Pesach.

From the HKA — Posted April 6, 2009, 2:45 AM

Dos Anclas Table Salt made by Alex Int'l Trading Corp mistakenly bears an OU-P symbol and is not certified kosher for Pesach. It is certified for year-round use only.

From the HKA — Posted April 6, 2009, 2:45 AM

Some of the Evanger's products may have "Brewers Dried Yeast" listed on the ingredient panel. These products should not be used on Pesach even when [incorrectly] bearing "Kosher for Passover" on the label)

From the HKA — Posted March 31, 2009, 10:00 PM

3rd coast produce is the only provider (in Houston) of cut fruits and vegetables (non leafy) that has produce acceptable for Passover. Apples will be packed in water without an antioxidant.

From the HKA — Posted March 31, 2009, 9:30 AM

Bordens will be bottling kosher for Passover milk and orange juice on April 1 and 2.

The milk will be in stores over the weekend and will have expiration dates of April 16, 17 or 18.

Make sure to look for the P-09 next to the expiration date.

This will apply to all white milk in all sizes. Bordens has many private label brands such as Poinsettia. The Passover certification also applies to them.

The orange juice will have an expiration date of around May 6th.

Posted March 29, 2009, 6:00 PM

Kedem grape juice in 50.7 oz. bottles is not mevushal.

From Rabbi Gershon Bess, Los Angeles Kollel — Posted March 24, 2009, 11:15 PM

The following Rolaid's products from McNeil Consumer Healthcare are acceptable for Pesach:

- Rolaid's Extra Strength Fruit, Freshmint
- Rolaid's Regular Strength peppermint
- Rolaid's MultiSymptom Berry, Cool Mint

The following Tums products from GlaxoSmithKline Consumer are acceptable for Pesach:

- Tums Regular, E-X, Ultra
- Tums Smoothies Cocoa and Cream (Dairy)

The following Tums products contain Chametz and should not be used on Pesach:

- Tums Kids
- Tums Smoothies Assorted Fruit
- Tums Smoothies Berry Fusion